NAMIBIA

For the seasoned safari-goers who are seeking some lesser-known thrills and once-in-a-lifetime trips, a journey to Namibia should be at the top of your bucket list. This under-the-radar destination contains a rich variety of wildlife that has adapted to the country's distinct geography and climate. The lodges you come home to after each day's adventure are nothing short of spectacular. Dream beneath the stars of Africa's first designated International Dark Sky Reserve. Then, wake up in desert accommodations as you take in morning views of the misty Atlantic coast. Finally, relax poolside and watch an exotic mix of wildlife convene at a neighboring watering hole.

OMAN

Oman has risen in our books as becoming a popular destination for travelers looking for something different and culturally immersive. And it truly has so much to offer with everything from an incredible coastline, mountain ranges and not to mention the wild open desert. It's a fairly adventurous destination and can be done incredibly comfortably in 4X4s, private dinners under the stars, overnight in luxury camps in the desert whilst immersed in the warm local culture.
